MIRRORS

about us

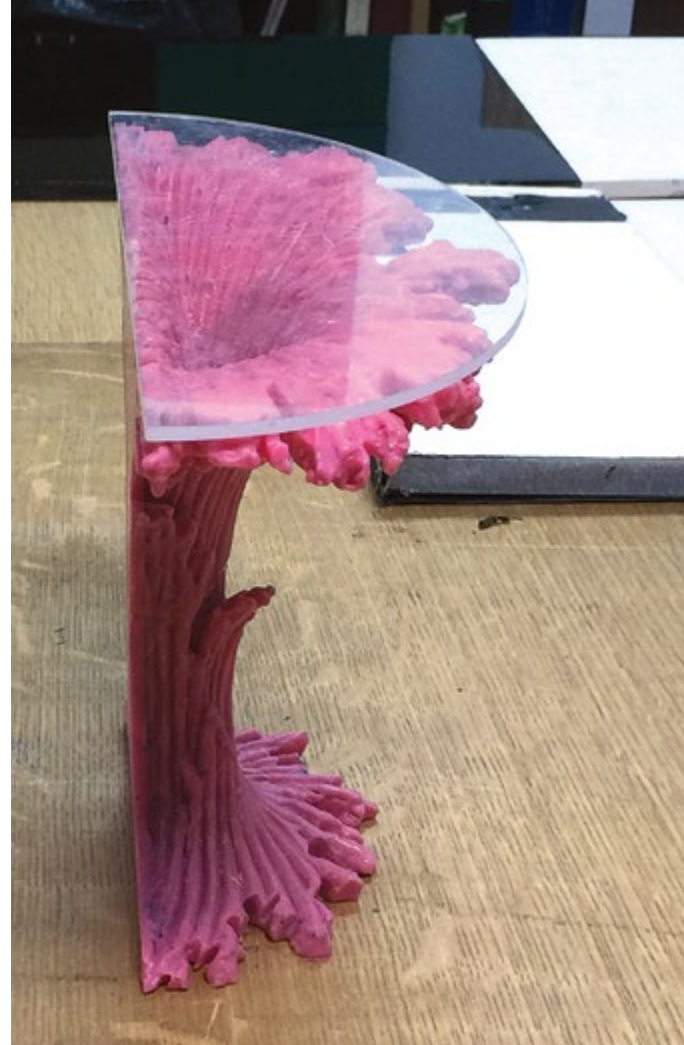

Established in 2008, born out of a love of beauty in home furnishings, Alden Parkes reflects our story, navigating through tumultuous times and an uncertain economy remaining steadfast in developing beautiful designs, quality construction and exceptional finishes, always with our eyes on the ultimate goal.

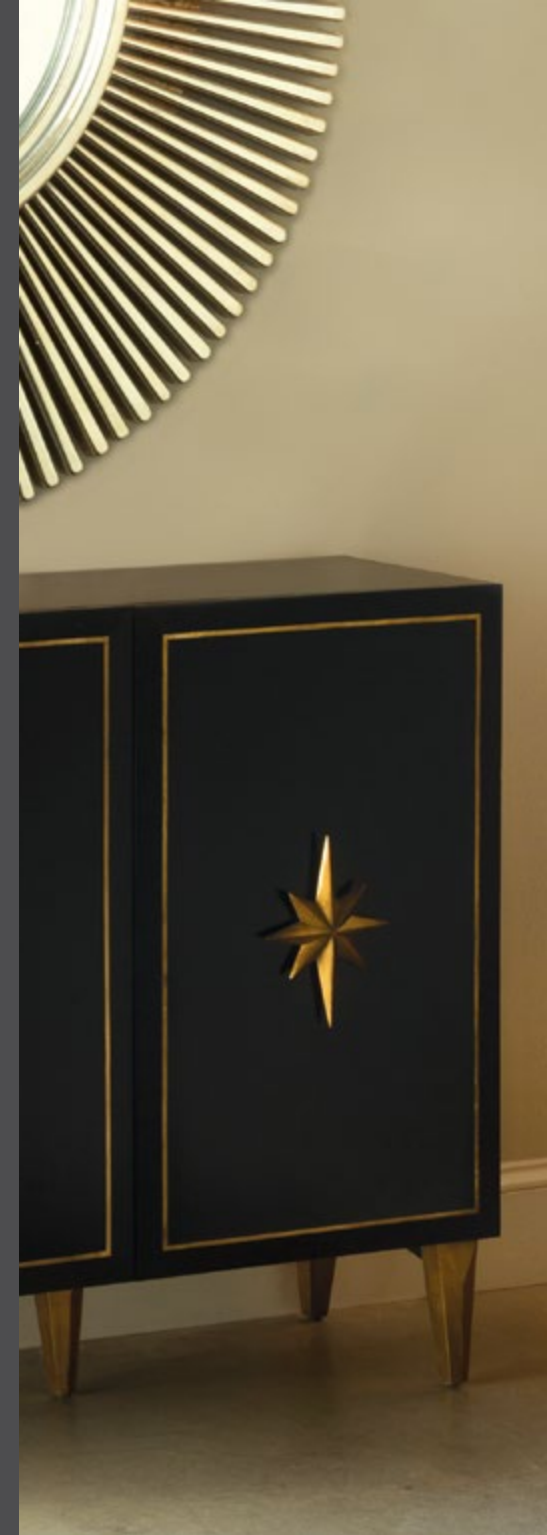

Through our extensive travels, we've remained focused on searching for the finest resources throughout the world that would enable us to provide well-made, unique pieces with an eye to detail.

We find inspiration wherever we are. Both historical and modern styles influence our product development. Through our travels we have been exposed to new cultures, rich with color, that served to inspire our design and styles. As a result Alden Parkes offers a diversity in these "Looks," offering a wealth of style choices for our customers.

We are thrilled to introduce to you the "Looks" depicted in our new catalogue and we invite you to walk through the pages and experience the Alden Parkes story.

Lynne & Khrys

the looks

art of nature

Sitting on the beach in Maui, we watched the beauty of the ocean as the waves collided onto the shore. The power and the peace we felt as we watched the magnificence in nature inspired the Oceana Collection part of Art of Nature. This is reflected in the graceful wave of the Oceana Console, in the hardware of the Oceana Dresser or Buffet, in the legs of the dining table.

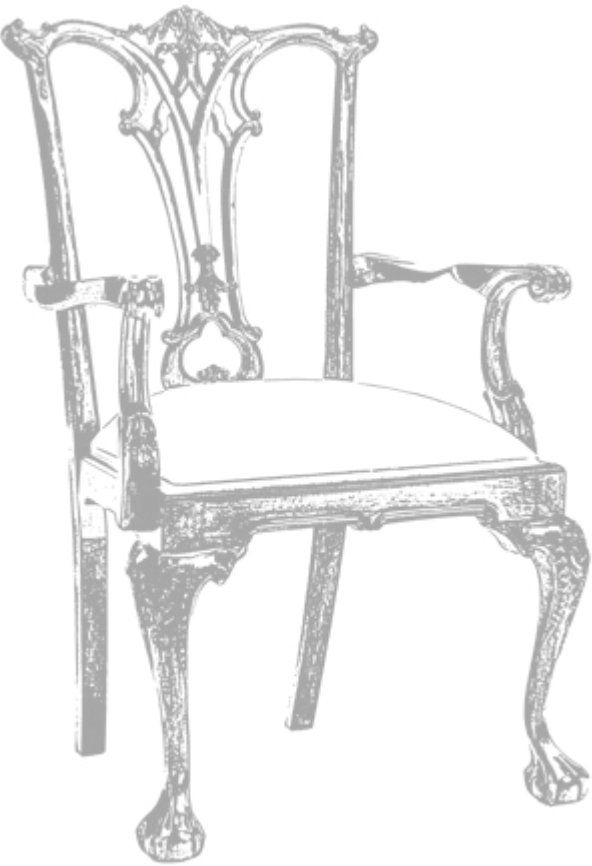

tradition redefined

As we traveled across our great nation, we stepped on Plymouth Rock, where our forefather, John Alden, arrived at the New World on the Mayflower. We visited the Statue of Liberty, Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell, the Washington Monument and many more. Inspired with a deep love of America, awed by the forethought and perseverance of our forefathers, we took "Tradition" and added a modern twist to reflect "the beauty of tradition" mixed with a twist to create the "Look" for today. Tradition Redefined was created.

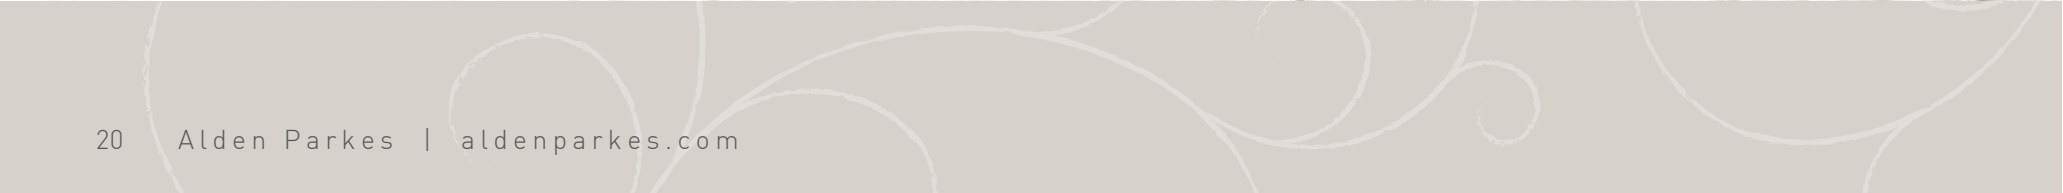

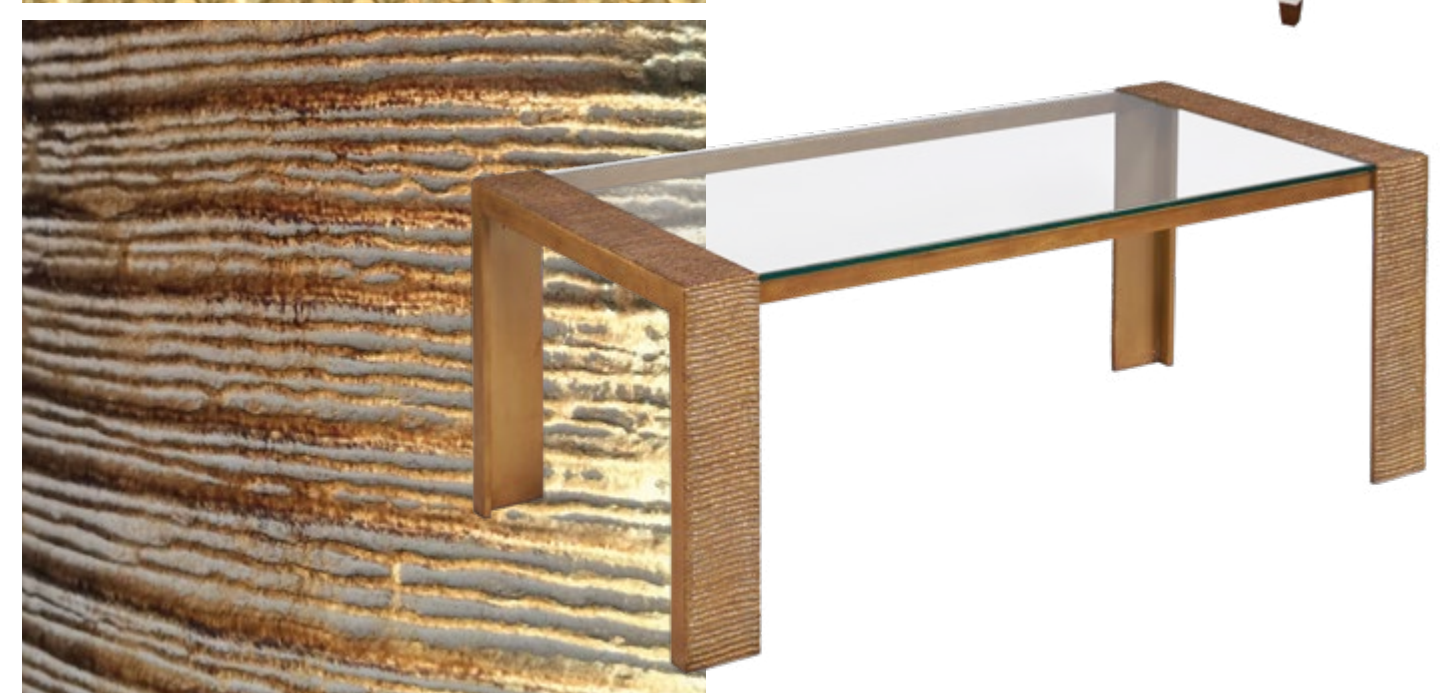

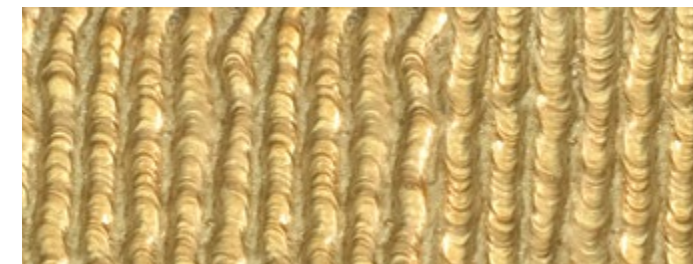

modern glamour

Modern Glamour evolved from a love of “Gems for the Home.” Since we love jewelry, we used that as the basis of our “Look” and incorporated the beauties found in nature, the abundance of rich colors, textures and shapes into our design. Creating understated elegance for the home allowed us to design and incorporate hardware and accents that made a simple frame stand out with that richness. The Tiffany and Allegra Groups exemplify that love of beauty.

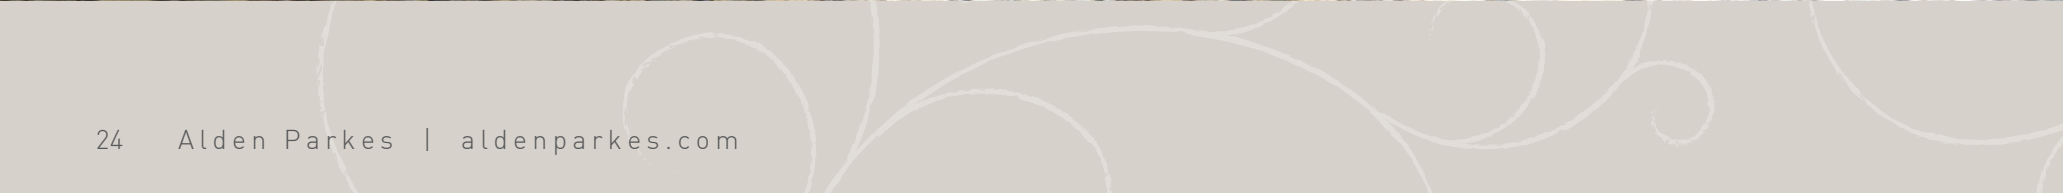

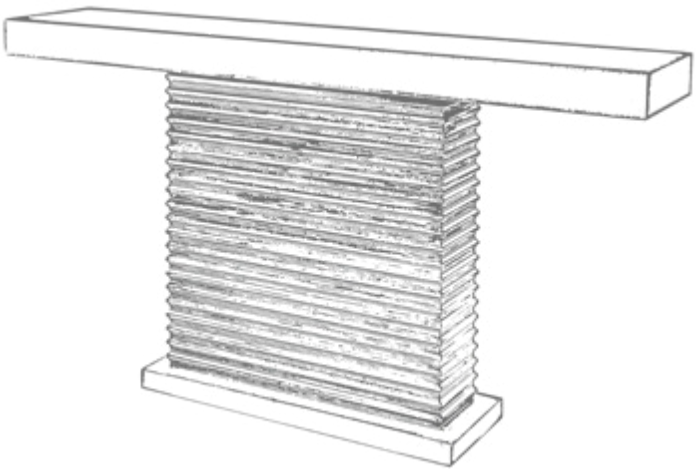

passport

Passport reflects the adventure of exploring, the textures and colors collected in the sojourn, which tell the story of life well lived. This “Look” is filled with rich veneers, warm brass accents, sophistication in style that’s easy and comfortable to live with.

The Pinnacles Group, part of Passport , was inspired by our trek climbing Mt. Shasta. That day, the mountain was full of climbers coming down saying the conditions were dangerous and not to attempt the climb. I asked my husband if he thought we should turn back. He asked me if I thought we could make it. When I said yes, he said, “Then we’ll climb the mountain.” When I asked how? he said, “By taking ten steps then ten breaths.” Oh how I came to value those ten breaths! At the end of the rugged climb with it’s many ups and downs, we were rewarded by a panoramic view of such indescribable beauty we were filled with gratitude that we had remained focused on our goal to reach the mountain top.

casual living

Think of an afternoon walking on the beach or soaking up the sun at the water's edge. Imagine curling up by the fireplace at the cabin with a good book on a fall day. Children playing hide 'n seek, toys everywhere, and family gathered to spend time together. These are the inspiration for Casual Living. Casual styles, durable finishes and fabrics are the mainstay of our casual collection.

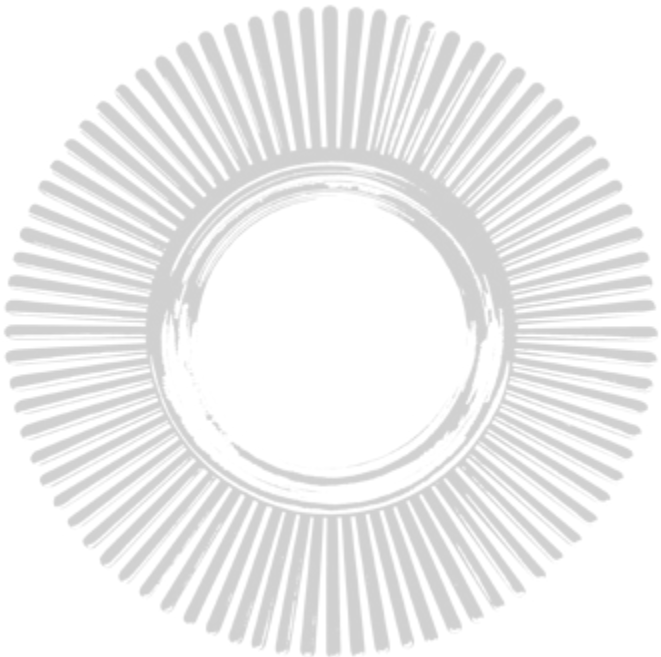

global

When we think of global, it reminds us of urban life, the hustle and bustle of the city, with its many similarities and diversities, reflecting those found across the world. Clean, straight lines, mixed materials, and an emphasis on function are the elements that describe Global.

“An empty room
is a story
waiting
to happen,
and you are the author.”

– Charlotte Moss

Wentworth Sofa

Some things are so perfectly perfect, they require no explanation, and the Wentworth Sofa is such a piece. Loose, box-bordered back and seat cushions, just the right height, just the right softness, just the right proportions. Need we say more? An enigma that can be made to look urban-modern, true traditional, comfortably transitional, or anything more. Wentworth is that sofa that will be a comfortable place to land after a busy day, just the spot to share "the big news" or the place you'll always remember when one of life's perfect moments happen. For today, tomorrow and always, Wentworth will be there for you. Made in USA by Alden Parkes.

Bardmoore Chair

Some chairs are made to look at but not to linger over, not to relax into. Our new Bardmoore Wing is no such chair, built to be the perfect place to sink in to, kick back and relax in. Scale that's not too large, not too small and generous enough to be comfortable for anyone. Gentle curves that add a hint of sexy scaling without being exaggerated, enough attention to detail to be alluring without being too showy. The classic tight back is enhanced with decorative nail head trim and contrasting arm panels that swoop all the way up the curved arms and around the back for added interest and drama. Exposed tapered wood legs, the perfect height, lend a clean economy of scale. Bardmoore is at home in settings from traditional to transitional, dressed any number of ways it can be the solution you've been looking for. Made in USA by Alden Parkes.
