Mod Squad

Take Mid-Century Modern and psychedelic '70s, mix in some glam elements like brass or acrylic (maybe both), perhaps round the edges of a luxurious upholstered settee or sofa a bit, toss in patterned prints, and you have a modern menagerie.

A look of the future, channeling the past, is this Roche Bobois' ATTITUDE SOFA, Diamond cocktail table and Black Losange rug. Available at Roche Bobois showrooms in Aventura, Coral Gables and North Palm Beach.

Craftsman

Artfully painted finishes, multi-colored glass and hand-rubbed stains add dimension and excitement, running the gamut of nature's most brilliant to wistfully muted colors.

Fit for royalty, the Alden Parkes VALENCIA ARM CHAIR features a lacquered gold leaf finish. Available at Robb & Stucky.

Sculpted to Perfection

Even collections with a bend toward minimalism are showing more sculpted frames. This trend is present in curvy upholstered pieces, finely carved woodwork, and runs rampant in lighting and accessories.

Known for sculptural design, Christopher Guy reveals this gallery-worthy, hand-carved VIGNE POUR DEUX SETTEE. Available at Floridian Furniture in Miami, Robb & Stucky in Coral Gables, and to the trade through Designers Resource Center in Boca Raton and Judith Norman at DCOTA in Dania Beach.
