

Modern Makeover | Trend Forecast | Appraising Antiques

design NJ

NEW JERSEY'S HOME & DESIGN MAGAZINE

August/September 2017

BATHROOMS to inspire

SMALL-SPACE LIVING

STUNNING TRANSFORMATIONS

SHORE IMPRESSIONS

Every year Design NJ ventures to High Point Market in North Carolina, the largest home furnishings tradeshow in the world, an interior design mecca that spans 180 buildings and over 11.5 million square feet. Take a peek into some of the newest products, colors and styles that will debut this season.

ON THE RADAR
versatile bar carts, light cerused oak finishes, mixed materials, sassy stripes, stylized florals and generously scaled damasks, furniture with detailed silhouettes designed to float in a room

1 | PREVIOUS PAGE | Bunny Williams Home, a new collection launched by the famed designer, contains a curated mix of furnishings. Shown is the Harvest Dining Table with a carved hardwood top in a cerused oak finish. A gilt rope detail accents the brushed wrought iron base. $4,500 - $5,000. The button-tufted Jack Chair — upholstered in blue Belgium linen and nail-head trim — has a streamlined silhouette that sits beautifully in both contemporary and traditional settings. $1,700 each. Bunnywilliamshome.com.

2 | The Flynn Ottoman from Tobi Fairley for CR Laine is upholstered in a wide “Caruso Indigo” stripe pattern with small pewter nail-head trim. $1,435. Flemington Department Store in Flemington, Wostbrock Home in Ridgewood or crlaine.com.

3 | Century’s four-sided Meridian Settee — from the new Windsor Smith Collection — is a modern nod to neoclassical style. Lean icy blue-gray bench cushions top a carved-wood frame accented with goldleaf. Try it centered in a foyer, in a dressing room or in larger living spaces to unite two ends of a room. $14,370. Centuryfurniture.com.

4 | Classic button tufting and diamond quilting on the outside back and outside arms distinguish Wesley Hall’s Kennedy Sofa upholstered in rich light blue leather. $7,950. Wesleyhall.com.

5 | Shown in “Vinca Indigo,” a vibrant floral print, the Milano Chair from Taylor King brightens any living room, bedroom or sitting area. Sleek, tapered legs in a “Brierwood” finish add an elegant touch. $2,310; White House Luxe in Fairfield or taylorking.com.

6 | The Nebula Table Lamp from Jamie Young has a soothing blue and white swirl ceramic base that is handmade so no two are exactly alike. $275. Schwartz Design Showroom in Metuchen (to the trade) or jamieyoung.com.

7 | This handsome multifunctional brass serving cart with classic lines from Alden Parks can be used as a side table, a tea cart, a coffee or drink server, or an extra server at that special dining occasion. Shown in brushed brass with a “Hale Navy” colored glass top and shelf. $2,607. Fun House Furnishings & Design in Mendham, Metro Home & Design in Summit or aldenparks.com.

As Featured in August/September 2017 of