

Haute
POINT

STANDOUT STYLES

These great pieces were spotted at High Point

1

4

2

3

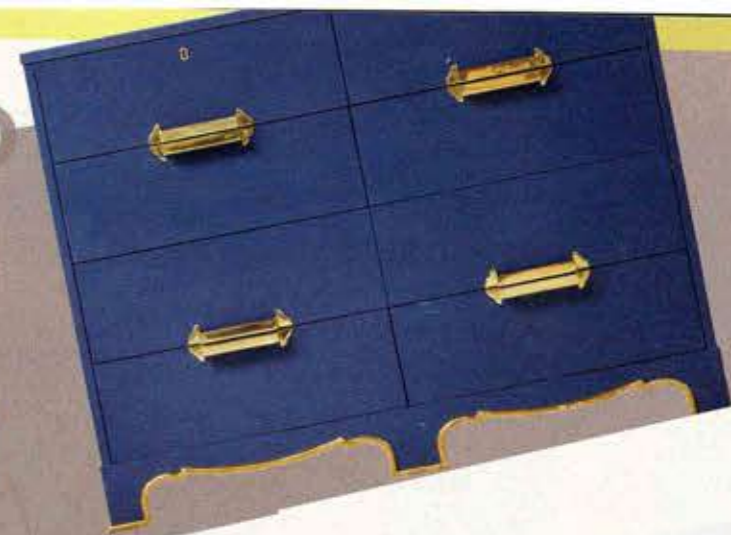

7

5

6

8

1 Currey & Company's Grand Lotus chandelier follows the floral trend seen now in ready-to-wear clothing. $1,420, curreycodealers.com
2 Saba Italia's reversible chair in orange and gray leather combines smart and art in a clever design. Prices upon request, sabaItalia.it
3 The red Sculptura occasional chair from Woodard has a retro feel but can withstand the elements with today's tough-as-nails techno finishes. $909, woodard-furniture.com
4 The Graffiti cocktail table from Alden Parkes nails the texture trend with a tactile, sculpted tabletop. $2,997, aldenparkes.com
5 Reminiscent of a Cartier bracelet, this jewel for the home from Nuevo comes as a cocktail or occasional table. $1,599, nuevoliving.com
6 Plush seating from Eilerson makes cocooning intimately more inviting in modern articulations of velvet. Prices upon request, eilersen.eu
7 Jaxon by Victoria Richter embraces the fur trend with the Gunnison Chair in Himalayan sheep. $3,200, jaxonhome.com
8 Indigo is everywhere, and this inky trend makes its mark at Kindel Furniture in the form of a chest of drawers with gold detailing. Prices upon request, kindelfurniture.com